Dear Colonel White:

Many thanks for a splendid session with our business group last week. The men were tremendously impressed and reassured by the sense of direction that emerged for the discussion of problems in international affairs. Needless to say, we are grateful for your continued interest and help in this program of executive education.

I thought you might be interested in our staff assignments for the remaining conferences for business executives to be conducted this year: May 12, Richard Simons; May 26, Peter Malof; June 9, Harry Page; June 30, Peter Malof; and July 14, John Larson.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Peter Malof
